STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIPS FOR YOUTH

FOLLOW YOUR WAY

By exchanging experience and good practice, there will be topics addressed:

- Career guidance as a tool to solve the problems of youth unemployment and labour market;
- Comparison of achievements and shortages regarding career guidance in the partners' countries;
- Created framework for innovative training program - as a solution to empower those working in career guidance field.

PROJECT EXPECTED RESULTS:

- Local Stakeholders collaboration networks in each country
- Questionnaires for situation analysis
- Situation analysis in each participating country related to career guidance
- First seminar implemented
- Best practice Exchange
- The framework for the international - comprehensive (blended) training course including list of useful materials.

What is needed now is a young person with the ability to face non predictable situations, able to understand his/her "talent" and able to develop quickly a professional and personal point of view.

At the same time, there are a few companies, which have difficulties in recruiting staff to hire and there are job opportunities in innovative areas that young people might grasp by developing entrepreneurial skills and business ideas.
